Items for Individual Consideration

Item # 1 Mayor Rosenthal read the following caption.

ORDINANCE NO. 2166

AN ORDINANCE CANVASSING THE RETURNS AND DECLARING
THE RESULTS OF THE SPECIAL BOND ELECTION HELD IN THE CITY OF ALAMO HEIGHTS, TEXAS ON NOVEMBER 3, 2020

Assistant to City Manager Jennifer Reyna presented the official results of the special election held on November 3, 2020. Ms. Reyna reported the City of Alamo Heights had the proposition of the issuance of bonds in the amount of $13,250,000 for the Austin Highway/Lower Broadway Improvement Project. There was a total of 4,558 voters who cast their ballots. She separated the total votes by Early Voting, Election Day, and Absentee/Mail-In Ballots in their respective Precincts – 3020, 3025, and 3026.

	For	Against
Early Votes	2,776	741
Absentee	633	177
Election Day Votes	178	53
TOTAL	3,587	971

Ms. Reyna cited Election Code 67.002 which mandates a canvass of the election results to make them official. As the local governing authority, Council would need to make a motion to canvass the results.

Before Council made their motion, Mayor Rosenthal shared he had received a note from Presiding Election Judge Tony Carter who thanked Mr. Kuhn and his staff for being so supportive in making Election Day a success at the City of Alamo Heights.

Ms. Reyna also took the opportunity to thank City Manager Buddy Kuhn and City Secretary Elsa Robles for their help on Election Day. She also thanked the Public Works, Fire, and Police departments for their help in planning for this event. It was important for all voters to have positive and pleasant experience while voting at our polling site.

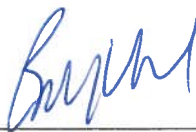

Mayor Pro Tem John Savage moved to approve Ordinance No. 2166 canvassing the November 3, 2020 Election returns and results. The motion was seconded by Councilmember Lawson Jessee and passed by unanimous vote.
